

FLU SITUATION IS NOT OVERLY ENCOURAGING

Four Deaths Since Saturday With Seven Serious Cases Remaining in Hospital

75 PATIENTS IN HOSPITALS

The local influenza situation remains critical and it was found that many additional cases developed over Sunday. Present conditions were foreseen by the health authorities with the result that facilities are at hand to cope with the same and there is no occasion for panic or alarm. The epidemic is being well handled in Clearfield and as a result of this fact our death rate is being kept well within the expected percentages.

We have had a total of about one thousand cases, according to the best information on that subject and at the time this was written there had been but seven deaths, which is less than one out of each hundred stricken. It has been the experience of almost every district throughout the country where an outbreak has occurred that the normal death rate has been increased six and one-half per cent. by the influenza. Our figures so far are below that mark considerably. Proper attention to the regulations of the Board of Health from time to time will continue to keep the percentage down.

As was stated in The Progress Saturday evening the Board of Health decided to accept the offer of the School Board and took over the new High School building as an additional emergency hospital. This morning there were fifty-seven patients at the Children's Home and fifteen at the High School building.

The deaths since Saturday were: Mrs. Walter Baney, aged 38 years, of Mill Road.

Three years old child of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fetzer of Mill Road. Charles Young, 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young, of Paradise.

The Board of Health at its meeting Sunday evening decided to ask all the business places in Clearfield to close at 6 o'clock every evening during the week. The order was issued and Mayor Chase and his police department are empowered to enforce the same and the Mayor says they will do so to the letter.

The Board of Health also suggests that it would be a good idea for everybody to wear "flu masks" during the coming week.

Lawrence Derrick, the 16 years old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Derrick, died at the emergency hospital about noon today.

There are three quite serious cases among the fifty-five remaining patients in the hospital. Three were discharged today.

The influenza is striking Woodland hard and an emergency hospital has been fitted up in the school building. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Powell, both serious cases, are patients at the Clearfield emergency hospital.

Mrs. Samuel Swoope, aged about 35 years, who was stricken Friday evening, died last night. She leaves a widow and five children, the youngest being but 2 years old.

William Learish, a former resident, who died at Ambridge, Pa., was buried at Bigler Sunday afternoon.

John A. Wisor, also a former resident, died of the influenza at Akron, Ohio, was brought to Woodland this morning for burial. The remains of a two year old son who closely followed his father in death, were also brought along and a double funeral will be held.

There was one death at Surveyor Sunday. Dr. Lewis has recovered and has opened an emergency hospital in the school house there.

Slight Improvement at DuBois
The calls for the services of undertakers continued yesterday at an altogether too lively a pace but for the forty-eight hours ending last evening since the last report was published, there was a slight decrease in the number of deaths resulting from influenza. Altogether there were twelve calls for the undertakers. Ten of these calls were the result of people dying from attack of influenza and pneumonia, but not all of them were from DuBois. During the 48 hours eight people in the city proper died as the result of the ravages of the disease. This includes Mrs. Tothill, whose death was mentioned Saturday morning. This is somewhat below the average, but is yet altogether too high.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The physicians of Clearfield respectfully request that they be not called for anything but acute cases of disease. Office calls and calls by the physician on chronic cases should be delayed until the epidemic is past and the physicians have the time to devote to these cases which are not immediate necessities.

The improvement in the influenza situation in this vicinity has been very encouraging during the past forty-eight hours and health authorities are of the opinion that the epidemic is now on the wane and that if the people continue to exercise the same precaution and obey the rules as they have been doing in the past week, there is every prospect that by the end of the current week the improvement will be such as to justify the prediction that the danger zone has been passed. Dr. Ginter stated last evening that during the past 24 hours from 6 o'clock Saturday night until 6 o'clock Sunday evening fifty new cases had been reported. For the preceding 24 hours, 68 cases had been reported, so that there is a slight decline each day. The number of new cases reported daily at the present time is in direct contrast with those of a week ago when 140 to 200 new cases were being reported each day. Dr. Ginter stated, however, that it is expected there will be some more deaths as the result of pneumonia and it will be some little time before the disease is wiped out. He urges the community to continue in the exercise of every precaution.

Heavy Toll at Wishaw
It is stated that at Wishaw out of a total of thirty-five young men who had registered for the army only three are alive at the present time, the other 32 having died as the result of the epidemic that prevailed there.

The body of Mrs. Ira Smith who died at Elmira, Saturday of pneumonia will arrive this evening. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 from the home of her parents, John and Mary Sefrend of East End. Mrs. Smith, who is aged 33 years and 22 days is survived by her husband and daughter Leona aged 7 years. Rev. Collins will conduct the funeral services.

MRS. WALTER BANEY

Mrs. Walter Baney of Mill Road, died at the Emergency hospital on South Second street Sunday afternoon, of pneumonia following an attack of Spanish influenza. The deceased was about 32 years of age and is survived by a widower and two children.

CHARLES YOUNG

Charles, the 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Young of Mill Road, passed away at the emergency hospital Saturday afternoon last as the result of an attack of influenza.

ANOTHER INFLUENZA DEATH

A three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fetzer died at their home on Mill Road Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock following an attack of influenza.

HEALTH NOTICE

At a meeting of the Board of Health held October 27, 1918, it was decided to close all business places in the Borough of Clearfield for the week beginning Monday, October 28, 1918, and ending Saturday November 2, 1918, inclusive, at six o'clock p. m.; provided that drug stores be permitted to sell drugs only, restaurants be allowed to keep open until seven p. m. and that hotels remain open for the accommodation of the traveling public.

SUES FOR PLUMBING BILL

Attorney L. D. McCall, of DuBois, entered suit in the Prothonotary's office this morning in behalf of W. T. Hay and against R. Sab, alias Mrs. M. Sab. The suit is brought to recover $32.93 alleged to be due on a plumbing contract with I. D. Hay & Co.

GERMANY AGAIN APPEALS TO PRESIDENT

Asks That Attempt Be Made To Force Early Submission Of Allied Armistice Demands

"DEEP-ROOTED CHANGES" NOW

By ROBERT J. BENDER

(United Press Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Germany appealed to official Washington today in an attempt to force early submission of armistice demands. The latest note would make it appear that the Allies took the initiative in the suggestion for an armistice. The official text of the note arrived early today. It was identical with the peace text. Asked as to its importance some officials said it was another step forward in Germany's efforts and others declared it merely a flattery of President Wilson's decision to keep arms interested and contains nothing new on the matter.

What Germany meant when she said that President Wilson "knows" of the "deep-rooted changes" under way in this country is uncertain. Some declare some supplemental statement as to political changes must have been attached, or is trying to emphasize that political changes are under way. Her statement that military powers are subject to change is merely inconclusive.

It is held to be subtle evidence that changes are taking place but nothing has been proven that a revolution is thorough or sincere or that even that action took place in effect. The resignation of General Ludendorff, Germany's master mind, is held as highly significant by some and denounced as camouflage by others.

DISPATCHES FROM THE WAR ZONE

THE BRITISH REPORT

By United Press

London, Oct. 28.—The British improved their positions along the western edge of the Mormal forest and north of Raines forest, Field Marshal Haig announced. A German counter attack against Farners, 2 miles south of Valenciennes was repulsed yesterday. On the Lys front French troops captured a farm which had been organized for defense purposes taking 100 prisoners, Haig reported in a special Belgian communiqué. The enemy artillery was active yesterday the Belgian war office announced.

THE SERBIAN STATEMENT

By United Press

The official Serbian statement received in Paris said that the Serbian troops had reached the heights south of the important town of Kragujevatz. Austro-Germans have set fire to the stations and depots in that place and had inflicted atrocities on the populace. Official statements by the Austrian war office said that Kragujevatz had been evacuated.

ON THE PIAVE

By United Press

Vienna via London, Oct. 28.—Bitter fighting is continued east of the Piave where Allied troops effected a crossing, the Austrian war office announced today. On the Piave front artillery fighting was continued yesterday, the statement said. On both sides of the Montello an entente attack on a large scale succeeded in reaching the left bank at certain points. Bitter fighting is in progress.

ATE FIVE TOADSTOOLS

Little Frances Wilson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson, ate five toadstools yesterday and for a time it was feared would suffer serious harm from the poisonous stuff, but fortunately such was not the case and she is shipper and alright this morning.

GLEANING FROM SOLDIER'S LETTERS

Pvt. James Flood, of Co. C. 9th Inf. writes to his mother from France to tell her that he is well and enjoying soldier life immensely. He says he has assisted in a number of drives and seen lots of Germans and finds driving them lots of fun. He says as it will soon be hunting season, he will think he is chasing rabbits while making Fritz and Heinie beat it through the brush. He says he is going to get the Kaiser if it's in the wood.

Pvt. Wilber Ogden, son of Wesley Ogden, of Mt. Joy, is in Base Hospital 47, he having been a victim of gas. Th letter, dated Oct. 3d, was written by a Red Cross nurse. He says he is receiving splendid care and getting along finely. He was in the regiment to go over the top first in the battle in which he was gassed and said they drove the Germans seven miles in three days, he falling on the third day. He thinks he will be able to write himself in a few days.

D. C. Young, of McBride street, recently received the following letter concerning his son Private James Young, who is with the old Tenth P. N. G. P. regiment "over there":

Sept. 30, 1918.

Mr. D. C. Young, Clearfield, Pa.

Dear Sir:— I wish to drop you just a line to say that I have had the pleasure of ministering communion to your son, James, and that at his request we have had prayer together.

He is in spirits that speak of duty done and hope for the best. He is a splendid christian fellow and whatever comes of him in body you may rest assured that he is right in spirit.

CHAPLAIN L. B. BRIGGS.

Base Hospital No. 202, A. E. F.

Private Henry Clifton Merrill in a letter to relatives at New Millport, gives an interesting history of the life of a raw recruit breaking into Uncle Sam's army. Young Merrill was working for Arch Moyer up at Faunce April 23d 1917, when he decided to do his bit for his country and he tells of his journey to DuBois, where he enlisted, his first week at Fort Slocum, N. Y., the first time he was away from home and the longest week of his life. He then detailed his trip to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and his experience in a company of regular soldiers. Then of his trip home to see his sick mother and back again to Texas and thence through the Texas oil fields. He tells of his first experience on the rifle range after hiking thirty-two miles to get a chance to shoot, and winds up with the story of a further journey to Camp Funston, Kansas, where he is installed as company clerk and with his company anxiously awaits the call to duty "across the pond".

William E. Schonwalder in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Schonwalder, of near Hyde City, from the battle front in France, gives an interesting description of things on the western front. He says they are winning great victories and if they keep up their present pace will soon have the Germans driven off the map. He wrote his letter in a dugout formerly used by German officers. It was thirty feet under ground and was bomb and shell proof. They had it fitted out with beds and stoves and even had cows and chickens in an adjoining cave. As he was writing a large number of prisoners just taken, mostly old men, were marched by. He says they captured a boy about 15 years of age and putting a note in his pocket which read: "We came over here to fight men, not boys," told the lad to go back home to his mother and he departed, promising to do so.

A. E. F., France, Oct. 2, 1918.

Dear Father and All:— Just a few lines to let you know I am well and to announce that I have been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross by President Wilson, following General Pershing's recommendation.

Will try to tell you what I got it for, but I never thought at the time that it amounted to much. It happened while our regiment was in Fismes, near the Vesle river. We had quite a battle with the Germans taking the town. A call was made for volunteers to try to take some wounded men across the street and on over the river. Well, three other fellows and I started with a wounded fellow on a door and just as we went around the corner of a house, near the bridge, a German sniper up the street shot the fellow on my right through the hip.

LUDENDORF OUT, HE DISAGREED WITH MAX

Controversy With Chancellor Over Acceptance Of Wilson Terms Cause Assigned

VON SECKT LIKELY SUCCESSOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The resignation of General Ludendorff as German military chief was forced after he had disagreed with Prince Max over acceptance of President Wilson's peace terms, according to news reports from the Hague received by the State Department today.

ZURICH, Oct. 28.—German newspapers predict that General von Seckt, Chief of Staff to General Mackensen during the latter's Roumanian drive, may succeed General Ludendorff as head of the German army.

Copenhagen, Oct. 28.—General Ludendorff, First Quartermaster General of the German army and Field Marshal Hindenburg's "right-hand man" has resigned.

London, Oct. 2.—British admiralty wireless—The effect of General Ludendorff's resignation on the German people who are already suffering from recurring shocks of a terrible crisis can scarcely be over estimated.

Berne, Oct. 28.—Rioting scenes accompanied by fist fighting over the Polish question occurred in the Reichstag, according to advices received here today. Foreign Secretary Solf told the Polish members that President Wilson's program did not mean that Danzig would be ceded to them. Order was restored with the help of the police.

PHILIP ALLEN ROWLES IS KILLED IN ACTION

Another Clearfield boy has been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice for his country on the gory battle fields of France.

Word was received here today by Mrs. John Rowles, of Cemetery Road, that her son Philip Allen Rowles had been killed in action over in France. The deceased was sent to Camp Lee from Clearfield in September 1, 1917. He was a fine young man and Mrs. Rowles has the sympathy of the community in her bereavement.

Mrs. Rowles makes her home with her daughter Mrs. Joseph Swatsworth. John Rowles, father of the deceased is employed by the Harbison-Walker Company, near Blue Ball.

Well we saw there was no use trying to cross the bridge while that sniper was there. We got our two wounded back around the house, and there lay a message carrier shot thru the heart as he attempted to take a message across that bridge five minutes before. A sergeant or my company and myself looked for the message but couldn't find it. I knew the captain who sent it and so went over to where he and some other officers were in a dugout at Battalion headquarters.

I reported about the messenger being shot and volunteered to attempt to take a duplicate message to the major on the other side of the town. Well, I started, went about one hundred yards up the river from where the bridge was. At this point there had been an old foot bridge but all that was left was a part of the wooden railing. I crossed it hand over hand and all the while the Germans were shelling thunder out of the town. Nearly got hit several times by bursting shrapnel, but good luck was with me and I got to where the major was located and delivered the message. He then sent two runners with it back to the colonel.

Well to make a long story short I got some "corn Willie" three or four cans, and some hard tack and started back. I got back the same way as O. K. That and some other little things I did got me the cross.

Will tell you the whole story of my experiences at the front when I got home, which I think will be before long.

AUSTRIA ACCEPTS PRESIDENT'S TERMS

(By United Press)
PARIS, Oct. 28.—Austria replying to President Wilson, accepts all of his conditions, it was learned officially from Berne today.

Austria accepts Wilson's terms regarding the Czechoslovaks and the Jugo-Slavs. (The President said that Austria must negotiate directly with the Czechoslovaks and the Jugo-Slavs who desire to establish independent nations.)

Austria declared her readiness to enter negotiations immediately regardless of the result of other negotiations and asks Wilson to take measures toward an armistice and peace. One leading newspaper says "The Austrian note is a complete capitulation." Germany in turn is facing the necessity of accepting conditions of an armistice which will render a renewal of hostilities impossible, binding her to immediate negotiations for a Wilsonian peace.

(By United Press)

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A revolution is feared in Vienna according to advices received here today. The Arch Dukes have found refuge in the castle at Gollito and Emperor Karl, it is said, would leave for Debreczin.

(By United Press)

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 28.—Emperor Karl has asked for the resignation of the Hungarian Premier Wekerle according to Budapest dispatches received here today. Budapest dispatches to the Zeitung said that Count Karolyi, now head of the national council, will request the Emperor to appear before the Hungarian Diet and proclaim Hungary's independence. Peace demonstrations in the Hungarian parliament house Saturday were settled by the police, it was stated.

WILSON ATTEMPTS TO EXPLAIN PEACE TERM CONCERNING TRADE CONDITIONS

By L. C. MARTIN

(United Press Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Denounced as a "lamentable attempt to bend to partisan service the momentous issues of this solemn hour" President Wilson today explained that Article Three of the peace terms does not mean a policy of free trade. "Responding to a letter of inquiry from Senator Simmons who asked that interpretation might be placed on the peace article in question 'removal of all economic barriers and an equality of trade conditions among nations, etc.'" The President said he meant merely that there should be no discrimination against some nations that do not apply to others.

POSSIBLE HOMICIDE NEAR COALPORT

The remains of John Starrie, an Austrian miner, aged 29 years, was found lying on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks about a mile above Coalport, in the direction of Heverly, Pa., at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. Starrie had been run over by a train and horribly mangled and cut up. His head, one arm and one foot was severed from the body.

Starrie with two fellow foreigners were on their way home from Coalport and at 11 o'clock Saturday night sounds denoting an altercation between the men were heard near where the dead man's body was found.

District Attorney Arnold and Sheriff Gorman went to Coalport yesterday to investigate the matter and as a result of what they learned the companion were arrested and brought to jail.

The state-wide ban on the sale of liquor did not appear to bother this party as they were found to have had at least two and a half quarts of whiskey with them when arrested.

The men are being held on suspicion, as there is a possibility that Starrie had been knocked out in a battle and then been placed on the track for the train to run over to destroy evidences of the crime.

CHAIRMAN HAYES ANSWERS THE PRESIDENT

Wilson Ungrateful For Generous Support Of Republicans While Forgetting Own Party

PROUD OF PRO-WAR STAND

New York, Oct. 27.—Will H. Hayes, chairman of the Republican National Committee, issued an address today to the Republicans of the country calling upon them to take up what he termed the challenge of the President of the United States in "questioning the motives and fidelity" of the Republican members of Congress in his appeal to the people of the country to return a Democratic Congress at the November election.

Chairman Hayes has been in conference with a number of prominent Republicans since last Friday when the President's appeal was issued and it is said obtained their views before putting out his reply which was issued today at the headquarters of the Republican National committee, 452 Fifth avenue. This is Chairman Hayes address:

"President Wilson has questioned the motives and fidelity of your representatives in Congress. He thereby impugned their loyalty denied their patriotism. His challenge is to you who elected those representatives. You owe it to the honor of your great party, and your own self-respect to meet the challenge squarely, not only as Republicans but as Americans, I, as your chairman, call upon you to do it.

"Mr. Wilson accuses the Republicans no credit whatever for having supported the 'war measures' proposed by the administration although they have done so with greater unanimity than the members of his own party. Despite that fact, he accuses them of having tried to usurp proper functions. That charge, Mr. Taft declares in carefully measured words, is not true. At no tin and in no way have they tried to take control of the war out of his hand. The President knows that. You know it.

A Mendacious Accusation

"A more ungracious, more unjust, more wanton, more mendacious accusation was never made by the most reckless stump orator, much less by a President of the United States for partisan purposes. It is an insult, not only to every loyal Republican in Congress, but to every loyal Republican in the land. It fully merits the resentment which rightfully and surely will find expression at the polls.

"Mr. Wilson grudgingly admits that the Republicans have been 'pro-war.' Then why does he demand their defeat? Because they are still pro-war? Hardly that. No. It is because they are for peace, though, not without victory; because they do not believe lasting peace can be obtained through negotiation; because they consider that 'U. S. stands for Unconditional Surrender as well as for the United States and Uncle Sam.' The Democratic Congress does not. Mr. Wilson does not. There is the issue clear as the noonday sun. The country will decide.

Wilson Wants Rubber Stamps

"Mr. Wilson wants only rubber stamps, his rubber stamps, in Congress. He says so. No one knows it better than Democratic congressmen. He calls for the defeat of pro-war Republicans and the election of anti-war Democrats. He, as the executive, is no longer satisfied to be one branch of the government, as provided by the constitution. Republican Congressmen must be defeated and Democratic Congressmen must be elected, as they would yield in everything. That is, evidently his idea—the idea of an autocrat calling his life the servant but bidding for the mastery of this great free people.

"Republicans in Congress have seemed to him good enough when they assented, as they did assent with highest patriotism and sometimes against their best judgment to his proposals. Republican at home have seemed to him good enough to send fully a million of their sons into battle to furnish at least half of the army and far more than half of the money for the winning of the war, but they are not considered good enough to have a

OUR DUTY TO NEUTRALS

When the war ends in democracy's triumph, new obligations will fall upon us. We shall be called upon to send not less food, but more.

The allies will by no means produce a new harvest overnight. Eighty millions of men can not be taken out of production for four years without lasting losses of yield. It will be years before their fields recuperate, farms are restored, and herds are restocked.

But another demand even more insistent will come to us—the cry of the hungry victims of Germany and the war. Every country in Europe has suffered shortage of food, lessened yield, weakened production, most of all the great tracts overrun and pillaged by Germany, tortured and sacked by Germany's partners, wrecked by the Russian madness.

Their woes are increasing; they are facing now a terrible winter. Many will starve. As yet we can not help them except where the Belgian Relief Commission extends its succor. We can not prevent starvation behind the war barrier or beyond the limits of shipping, whose every cubic foot and every second's time is needed in the effort for victory.

After the war the needs of 180,000,000 hungry people will press on America. We could not choose but help them. As we believe in the kindred of all humanity, America will save food to rescue and restore them.

U. S.—UNITED STATES AND ANOTHER MEANING

Chairman Dent of the Committee of Military Affairs, a Democrat, fought the army bill.

Chairman Kitchen of the Ways and Means Committee, a Democrat, fought the army bill.

Speaker Champ Clark, a Democrat, fought the bill.

Republican congressmen came to the rescue of the nation and the President and put the bill through and the only reason President Wilson asks for the return of the Democratic bickering congress is because the Republicans are of another political faith than his own. The President acknowledges that the Republicans are pro-war, in fact gives them credit for it.

Elect Republican congressmen. They have been and will stand back of the President in every real war measure. By so doing give U. S. a new meaning to the Hun. The Republicans being pro-war, as the President says, U. S. will then mean "Unconditional Surrender".

voice in the settlement of the war. Why? Are not their sacrifices as great as others? Have not they as much at stake in the future? Mr. Wilson says he has "no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism." But he does suggest it, and suggests further that he alone is paramount in intelligence.

"But Mr. Wilson's real purpose has nothing to do with the conduct of the war. He has had that from the beginning, has it now, and nobody dreams of interfering with his control. He wants just two things. One is full power to settle the war precisely as he and his sole, unelected, unpatriotic affairs of the nation in the same may determine. The other is full power as the 'unembarrassed' spokesman in affairs at home as he actually demands in his statement, to reconstruct in peace time the great industrial affairs of the nation in the same way in unimpeded conformity with whatever socialistic doctrines, whatever unlimited government ownership notions, whatever hazy whims may happen to possess him at that time, but first and above all with absolute commitment to free trade with all

AN ANSWER TO THE DEMOCRATIC INSULT TO REPUBLICAN PATRIOTS

"Politics is adjourned?" Yes it is. What do you think of the following? The Democratic Watchman in its issue of October 18th under the title of "False Pretense Revealed" says:

"The only reason that any Republican Senator or Representative in Congress has voted for any of the war measures is that they hadn't strength enough to defeat them and hadn't courage enough to oppose them as a minority. Moreover if the Republicans had a majority in both branches of Congress, the conscription bill would not have been passed, the revenue bill would have been defeated and every other war measure which has world such splendid results would have been voted down."

This statement is really too ridiculous to be called pernicious. Every thinking man in the United States knows that the Republican party is the real WAR PARTY. The Democratic slogan "He kept us out of war" was proclaimed from the Atlantic to the Pacific from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. The Democratic Patriarch, William Jennings Bryan was heralded all over the country as champion of peace, a cartoon with the dove of peace resting on his head was in all city and country papers. "We are too proud to fight," "We can have peace without victory," were the political watch-words and phrases all thru the campaign, while the Republicans were proclaiming and demanding PREPARATION, insisting on retribution for insults heaped on innocent people and innocent nations. The democratic party was put in power. They elected their president and vice president. They controlled the Congress and their speaker, Champ Clark, left his seat as Presiding Officer and came to the floor of the House to speak and did speak against the CONSCRIPTION LAW. This is only done when the majority desires to force a measure through Congress and had not the Republicans stood solidly with the President the Conscription Law would have been defeated. The floor leader of the House when our ships were sunk declared "Millions for U Boat destroyers but not one cent for BATTLE SHIPS, and yet the Watchman has the nerve to say the Conscription bill would not have been passed and the revenue bills been defeated had the Republicans a majority in both branches of Congress.

Under the same article, the Watchman said:

"Republican speakers and press the world, thus giving to Germany out of hand the fruits of a victory greater than she could win by fighting a hundred years. A Republican Congress will never consent to that. Do you want a Congress that will? Germany does."

Germany Looks to Wilson

"Germany looks to Mr. Wilson to get it for her, as he pledged himself to do in one of the few of his famous articles which is explicable. Germany understands that. See the New York World, spokesman for the administration, of last Saturday and read the testimony of Henry C. Emery, former head of the tariff commission, just returned from seven months in Germany. 'The German people,' he says, 'seemed to realize that President Wilson lay their only salvation. They have turned to him in belief that he is the one great political leader who can be trusted to make a permanent peace which shall permit equal economic development.' He is. All others demand that the Germans shall pay the full penalty of their crimes."

"What worse than nonsense then is the Democratic campaign cry that the election of a Republican Congress, pledged to unconditional surrender and protection of American industries and American workingmen, instead of a Democratic congress ready to assent to a negotiated peace and free trade, would bear cheer to Germany. Such claims would be ludicrous if they were not so seriously unpatriotic. They are as unfair, as untrue and as utterly impossible as their claim that our Allies would be cast down by the election of such a Republican Congress in the fact of the world-known Republican record, past and present, and in the face of the recent acclaim abroad of Republican senators, as reported in the Paris cable to the Democratic New York Times on October 9 in these words:

"The reports of debates in the American Senate share first places with the news of the great military victories on the West front. Senators McCumber, Nelson and Lodge are as highly thought of in France today as are the American generals."

Wilson Only G. O. P. Surrender

"Mr. Wilson calls upon the Republican leaders of the country to repudiate their representatives in Congress who have proved true and loyal patriots. Are you going to do it? Answer with have the assurance—I presume he meant audacity—to ask patriotic didacts for Senators and Representatives in Congress upon the false and fraudulent pretense that such action will promote the prosecution of the war. It can have no other than the opposite result. It will promote the success of the German autocracy in the war, and prolong the struggle indefinitely and cost hundreds of thousands of lives of American citizens. No man who desires to see the war speedily and successfully conducted will vote for a Republican candidate for either branch of Congress. No intelligent man outside the central powers desires a Republican majority in Congress."

Can you think of a more absurd, false, pernicious, piece of political propaganda than that? Listen, you men of sixty-one to sixty-five, you who followed the flag through the battle fields of the south; you who have stood by the principles of Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt; you men are now called upon to desert your principles under the penalty of being called unpatriotic. Listen, you two hundred or more thousand Republican fathers in Pennsylvania who have sons on the firing line of France, who have sons in the casualty lists, you are called unpatriotic and the continuation of your loved ones on the firing lines, if there is a Republican Congress, will be worse than useless for the war will continue indefinitely and hundreds of thousands of lives will be lost. Bosh. Listen, Senator Miller, you who have a son languishing in a German prison suffering the tortures of hell and another son and son-in-law in the service, why do you seek the senate of Pennsylvania as a to-publican when you must call to your help Republican voters who are unpatriotic if they vote for you, and if they vote for your colleagues on the ticket will prolong the war indefinitely and cost hundreds of thousands of lives.

Yes, Politics is adjourned. Keep up that kind of propaganda which is not only an insult to the great Republican State of Pennsylvania that has done more than any other state in the union in man power and money power in the war, and reflects on the honesty and integrity of the democratic leaders, themselves, but it will only to the Republican candidates the sure support of the fair thinking people for active if party.

your votes. Mr. Wilson forces the Republican party to lie down or fight. I say fight. Answer with your votes.

"Mr. Wilson is for unconditional surrender. Yes, for the unconditional surrender to himself of the Republican party, of the country, of the Allies. All to him as the sole arbiter and master of the destinies of the world. Do you stand for that? Answer with your votes."

"The war is a Democratic asset," shouted Vice President Marshall. And they have made every effort to make it so, despite the earnest Republican insistence that we have no contest as to anything that touches the war except that contest as to who best can serve, who most can give. Republicans have insisted that with the great war load to haul both political horses be harnessed, each striving to see which can pull the harder. Mr. Wilson's appeal is simply the supreme effort of the Democratic high command to capitalize for partisan political purposes the glorious spirit of patriotism that inspires this country. He now openly speaks as his party has been secretly for months. And he charges nothing—neither the facts nor the Democratic political methods nor the certainty of Republican success.

"This is a call to all loyal Republicans, proud in their patriotism, to stand by their country and their candidates, and to let the world know that America spurns autocracy no less at home than abroad, and will uphold her Allies in whatever reparation they may exact for the frightful outrages inflicted upon them by the accursed Huns. We are fighting in France to make certain forever that men may have the right to govern themselves. Here, where we have that right, we shall exercise it, now and always. America was created for that very privilege. America will not be denied it now. America will answer with her vote."

PROMINENT SMOKY CITY MAN CLAIMS CLEARFIELD GIRL

Miss Julia Matilda Bell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Singleton Bell of Front street, Clearfield, became the bride of Robert J. Alderdice, superintendent of police of Pittsburgh, at a pretty home wedding Saturday evening.

Although original plans had to be curtailed because of influenza restrictions, the event was the most elaborate society affair in Clearfield for years being attended by many out-of-town guests of prominence. The wedding was to have been a church event, but because of quarantine regulations was converted into a home ceremony, and in order to comply with regulations of the board of health it was necessary to recall a large number of invitations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite gown of white satin, trimmed with old point lace and pearls. Her veil of real lace, arranged in cap effect, was caught to the coiffure with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses. Miss Gertrude Bell, as her sister's maid of honor, appeared in a fetching frock of turquoise blue satin and gold and the bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Badwin of Williamsport and Miss Natalie York, of New York, made a charming picture in effective gowns of the same satin in turquoise blue and gold. They carried bouquets of Killarney roses.

John Alderdice of Dormont, acted as his brother's best man. Completing the bridal party were the ushers, Corporal Cortez Bell of Clearfield, a brother of the bride; George Weaver, also of Clearfield and Robert A. Goshorn and Harry H. Kramer, both of Pittsburgh. The ceremony was followed by a large reception in the home. Throughout the house vases of white maples, Killarney roses and ferns were arranged in an artistic manner.

Among the out-of-town guests were Hon. and Mrs. Charles H. Rowland, of Philadelphia; Hon. and Mrs. Albert W. Johnson, of Lewisburg; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Nevin, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Schwem, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gleason and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Russell of Curwensville.

CAPTAIN CHESTER KERR VISITING CLEARFIELD

Captain Chester Kerr and family are guests at the home of Colonel Fred B. Kerr on Pine street at present. Captain Kerr was employed at Boardman mining operation of the James Kerr estate when the National Guard was sent to the Mexican border by President Wilson and accompanied a New York regiment as a private. He saw six months service there and later entered the officers training camp at Plattsburgh where he succeeded in winning a Captain's commission. He was then attached to the officer's training corps at Camp Upton and for the past ten months has been assisting in turning out "lightning trained Yankees" for service against Kaiser Bill's fleeing huns.

Some three weeks ago Captain Kerr was operated upon for appendicitis and was recently given an extended furlough for the purpose of recuperating his strength. He decided to do his recuperating among old home friends and scenes, hence his visit to Clearfield, where he is rapidly recovering and will soon be back to duty again.

Captain Kerr is a fine appearing soldier and is naturally very proud of the work the boys from Upton are doing in the big whirl across the pond.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

Minutes of Special Meeting of Curwensville Borough Council called at the office of R. D. Swoope, Esq., Curwensville, Pa., Friday, Oct. 25, 1918, for the purpose of considering and acting upon matters pertaining to the epidemic of Spanish influenza.

Meeting was convened at 8 o'clock, with President of Council John P. Irvin in the chair and Councilmen Z. A. Strickland, Percy Holten, C. S. Russell, M. A. Caldwell, J. M. McKinley, Chief Burgess Frank H. Traister, Chief of Police Guy B. Clark, Solicitor R. D. Swoope, Esq., a quorum of Curwensville Board of Health and a large number of representative citizens of Curwensville present.

Mr. Russell moved that the Council authorize Chief of Police Clark to have general charge of the houses quarantined in the borough and to use his police powers to have said quarantine strictly observed. That during the prevalence of the present epidemic he shall give all his time to this work; that he also shall be authorized to disperse all crowds of people, either on the streets or in any place of business, or otherwise in the said borough, and if necessary the Chief Burgess shall appoint other persons as assistants to the Chief Police in the performance of these duties, until such time as the present epidemic shall cease. Seconded by Mr. Caldwell. Carried.

Mr. McKinley moved that the Borough Post Office shall be closed at 6 o'clock P. M. each day and not opened until the following day at the usual time for opening same. Seconded by Mr. Strickland. Carried.

J. M. McKinley moved that the Curwensville Borough Council recommend to the Board of Health that a strict quarantine of the borough be established during the prevalence of the present epidemic of Spanish influenza, and that no person be permitted to travel from or into the borough without a physician's certificate; to have proper notices printed and all carriers of passengers notified. Motion seconded by Mr. Caldwell. Carried.

Mr. Russell moved that an appropriation of $160.00 be granted to the Board of Health. Seconded by Mr. Holten. Carried.

On motion adjourned.

President of Council J. P. Irvin wishes us to request all parents to restrain their children from indulging in any hallowe'en demonstrations whatever, and all those who indulge in disturbing the peace, either on or before or after hallowe'en will be arrested and fined.

Special meeting of Curwensville Borough Council, called by President John P. Irvin, convened at the office of John A. Dale, October 2, 1918, at 11 o'clock, a. m., to consider and act upon matters appertaining to the epidemic of Spanish influenza, with President Irvin in the chair, Councilmen C. S. Russell, Z. A. Strickland, Percy Holten and J. M. McKinley and Chief Burgess Frank H. Traister present.

The following resolutions were presented:
FIRST. That beginning with Monday October 28, 1918, and until further notice, all business places, barber shops, and all other places where people can and do congregate in crowds, shall be absolutely closed at 6 o'clock p. m., and not reopened until the regular opening hour the next day, except that drug stores may remain open for the dispensation of medical necessities only, and that restaurants may remain open until 7 o'clock p. m., for the sole purpose of serving meals.

SECOND. That becoming effective on Monday evening, October 28, 1918, no minor under the age of eighteen years, unless accompanied by his or her parent or guardian, or unless provided with a signed statement from his or her parent or guardian, authorizing a necessary errand, shall be permitted upon the streets or alleys of the Borough of Curwensville from 6 o'clock p. m. until 5 o'clock a. m., on each day, and that public notice of said curfew shall be given each evening at 7:45 o'clock p. m. by the ringing of the State street school house bell.

ing of the State street school house bell.

PENALTY. Any person violating either of these regulations, shall for the first offence be fined, by the Chief Burgess or a Justice of the Peace, upon conviction thereof, the sum of $3.00, and for the second or any subsequent violation, the sum of $5.00 and costs upon conviction as aforesaid.

Upon motion duly seconded said two Resolutions were unanimously approved.
On motion adjourned.
JOHN A. DALE, Sec.

OBITUARY

JAMES R. OGDEN DIES

James R. Ogden died at his home in the Third Ward at an early hour this morning as the result of a third stroke of paralysis, following an illness of five years duration.

The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Scout Ogden, and was born at the old Ogden homestead on South Second street May 12, 1849. He was a sober, industrious man and a good citizen at all times.

He is survived by his widow and four sons, viz: Belman, Halford, Ralph and David. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: M. Rush, Talbert D., William B., and Harry G. Ogden, Mrs. James Robinson, all of Clearfield, and Mrs. Curtis Wrigley, of Chester county.

The funeral will be held from his late home near Fulton street Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock, Rev. Nealson, of the Seventh Day Adventist church of DuBois, officiating. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

CLAIR A. MITCHELL

Clair A. Mitchell, a former Blairford township resident, died yesterday at his home 1216 Seventh street, south, Great Falls, Montana, of pneumonia following an attack of influenza. The deceased was 36 years of age and the son of the late Daniel F. and Hattie A. Mitchell, of near Woodland. He was a brother of Ashley, Lelia and Miss Jessie Mitchell, of Clearfield.

He is survived by a widow, son and daughter, all of whom are down with influenza.

In a Scottish town recently the relatives of four men who had distinguished themselves at the front were called at a public presentation to receive the medals awarded to these brave men. During the ceremony it was stated that the four men had been friends, had all enlisted on the same day, had all won their medals on the same day, had all, though in different ways, and had all been killed on the same day.

The most costly map in the world is a map of France which was presented to the Republic by the Czar of Russia when the Franco-Russian alliance was consummated. The groundwork of the map is polished Jasper, and the chief towns are represented by precious stones and their names inscribed in gold. The rivers are strips of polished platinum, and the eighty-seven departments are set out in a wonderful scheme of blazing gems.

The bamboo has been known to grow two feet in twenty-four hours.

After the Grippe

To regain your health and strength again you must take a tonic and for this purpose the Medical Profession is prescribing Iron, Sarsaparilla, Compound, Capsicum and Zinc Phosphate in some form. Many preparations containing iron are very constipating, but this is very constipating but this is not and by the addition of Aloin in Chas. H. Ross' Sarsaparilla Tablets, which contain all of the above named remedies.

In three Tablets you have all that is good in tonic medicines without any harmful effects. They are safe and sure, with no build-up and at the particular time it would be hard to over-estimate their value.

Weigh your pills before taking them and see what you get in weight for your money. A 100 Tablets will weigh 14.68 grams and 1000 Tablets at sixty cents a box. Sarsaparilla Tablets only cost.

FLU SITUATION IS NOT OVERLY ENCOURAGING

Four Deaths Since Saturday With Seven Serious Cases Remaining in Hospital

75 PATIENTS IN HOSPITALS

The local influenza situation remains critical and it was found that many additional cases developed over Sunday. Present conditions were foreseen by the health authorities with the result that facilities are at hand to cope with the same and there is no occasion for panic or alarm. The epidemic is being well handled in Clearfield and as a result of this fact our death rate is being kept well within the expected percentages.

We have had a total of about one thousand cases, according to the best information on that subject and at the time this was written there had been but seven deaths, which is less than one out of each hundred stricken. It has been the experience of almost every district throughout the country where an outbreak has occurred that the normal death rate has been increased six and one-half per cent. by the influenza. Our figures so far are below that mark considerably. Proper attention to the regulations of the Board of Health from time to time will continue to keep the percentage down.

As was stated in The Progress Saturday evening the Board of Health decided to accept the offer of the School Board and took over the new High School building as an additional emergency hospital. This morning there were fifty-seven patients at the Children's Home and fifteen at the High school building.

The deaths since Saturday were: Mrs. Walter Baney, aged 38 years, of Mill Road.

Three years old child of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fetzer of Mill Road. Charles Young, 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young, of Paradise.

The Board of Health at its meeting Sunday evening decided to ask all the business places in Clearfield to close at 6 o'clock every evening during the week. The order was issued and Mayor Chase and his police department are empowered to enforce the same and the Mayor says they will do so to the letter.

The Board of Health also suggests that it would be a good idea for everybody to wear "flu masks" during the coming week.

Lawrence Derrick, the 16 years old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Derrick, died at the emergency hospital about noon today.

There are three quite serious cases among the fifty-five remaining patients in the hospital. Three were discharged today.

The influenza is striking Woodland hard and an emergency hospital has been fitted up in the school building. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Powell, both serious cases, are patients at the Clearfield emergency hospital.

Mrs. Samuel Swoope, aged about 35 years, who was stricken Friday evening, died last night. She leaves a widow and five children, the youngest being but 2 years old.

William Learish, a former resident, who died at Ambridge, Pa., was buried at Bigler Sunday afternoon.

John A. Wisor, also a former resident, died of the influenza at Akron, Ohio, was brought to Woodland this morning for burial. The remains of a two year old son who closely followed his father in death, were also brought along and a double funeral will be held.

There was one death at Surveyor Sunday. Dr. Lewis has recovered and has opened an emergency hospital in the school house there.

Slight Improvement at DuBois
The calls for the services of undertakers continued yesterday at an altogether too lively a pace but for the forty-eight hours ending last evening since the last report was published, there was a slight decrease in the number of deaths resulting from influenza. Altogether there were twelve calls for the undertakers. Ten of these calls were the result of people dying from attack of influenza and pneumonia, but not all of them were from DuBois. During the 48 hours eight people in the city proper died as the result of the ravages of the disease. This includes Mrs. Tothill, whose death was mentioned Saturday morning. This is somewhat below the average, but is yet altogether too high.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The physicians of Clearfield respectfully request that they be not called for anything but acute cases of disease. Office calls and calls by the physician on chronic cases should be delayed until the epidemic is past and the physicians have the time to devote to these cases which are not immediate necessities.

The improvement in the influenza situation in this vicinity has been very encouraging during the past forty-eight hours and health authorities are of the opinion that the epidemic is now on the wane and that if the people continue to exercise the same precaution and obey the rules as they have been doing in the past week, there is every prospect that by the end of the current week the improvement will be such as to justify the prediction that the danger zone has been passed. Dr. Ginter stated last evening that during the past 24 hours from 6 o'clock Saturday night until 6 o'clock Sunday evening fifty new cases had been reported. For the preceding 24 hours, 68 cases had been reported, so that there is a slight decline each day. The number of new cases reported daily at the present time is in direct contrast with those of a week ago when 140 to 200 new cases were being reported each day. Dr. Ginter stated, however, that it is expected there will be some more deaths as the result of pneumonia and it will be some little time before the disease is wiped out. He urges the community to continue in the exercise of every precaution.

Heavy Toll at Wishaw
It is stated that at Wishaw out of a total of thirty-five young men who had registered for the army only three are alive at the present time, the other 32 having died as the result of the epidemic that prevailed there.

The body of Mrs. Ira Smith who died at Elmira, Saturday of pneumonia will arrive this evening. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 from the home of her parents, John and Mary Sefrend of East End. Mrs. Smith, who is aged 33 years and 22 days is survived by her husband and daughter Leona aged 7 years. Rev. Collins will conduct the funeral services.

MRS. WALTER BANEY

Mrs. Walter Baney of Mill Road, died at the Emergency hospital on South Second street Sunday afternoon, of pneumonia following an attack of Spanish influenza. The deceased was about 32 years of age and is survived by a widower and two children.

CHARLES YOUNG

Charles, the 17 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Young of Mill Road, passed away at the emergency hospital Saturday afternoon last as the result of an attack of influenza.

ANOTHER INFLUENZA DEATH

A three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fetzer died at their home on Mill Road Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock following an attack of influenza.

HEALTH NOTICE

At a meeting of the Board of Health held October 27, 1918, it was decided to close all business places in the Borough of Clearfield for the week beginning Monday, October 28, 1918, and ending Saturday November 2, 1918, inclusive, at six o'clock p. m.; provided that drug stores be permitted to sell drugs only, restaurants be allowed to keep open until seven p. m. and that hotels remain open for the accommodation of the traveling public.

GERMANY AGAIN APPEALS TO PRESIDENT

Asks That Attempt Be Made To Force Early Submission Of Allied Armistice Demands

"DEEP-ROOTED CHANGES" NOW

By ROBERT J. BENDER

(United Press Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Germany appealed to official Washington today in an attempt to force early submission of armistice demands. The latest note would make it appear that the Allies took the initiative in the suggestion for an armistice. The official text of the note arrived early today. It was identical with the peace text. Asked as to its importance some officials said it was another step forward in Germany's efforts and others declared it merely a flattery of President Wilson's decision to keep arms interested and contains nothing new on the matter.

What Germany meant when she said that President Wilson "knows" of the "deep-rooted changes" under way in this country is uncertain. Some declare some supplemental statement as to political changes must have been attached, or is trying to emphasize that political changes are under way. Her statement that military powers are subject to change is merely inconclusive.

It is held to be subtle evidence that changes are taking place but nothing has been proven that a revolution is thorough or sincere or that even that action took place in effect. The resignation of General Ludendorff, Germany's master mind, is held as highly significant by some and denounced as camouflage by others.

DISPATCHES FROM THE WAR ZONE

THE BRITISH REPORT

By United Press

London, Oct. 28.—The British improved their positions along the western edge of the Mormal forest and north of Raines forest, Field Marshal Haig announced. A German counter attack against Farners, 2 miles south of Valenciennes was repulsed yesterday. On the Lys front French troops captured a farm which had been organized for defense purposes taking 100 prisoners, Haig reported in a special Belgian communiqué. The enemy artillery was active yesterday the Belgian war office announced.

THE SERBIAN STATEMENT

By United Press

The official Serbian statement received in Paris said that the Serbian troops had reached the heights south of the important town of Kragujevatz. Austro-Germans have set fire to the stations and depots in that place and had inflicted atrocities on the populace. Official statements by the Austrian war office said that Kragujevatz had been evacuated.

ON THE PIAVE

By United Press

Vienna via London, Oct. 28.—Bitter fighting is continued east of the Piave where Allied troops effected a crossing, the Austrian war office announced today. On the Piave front artillery fighting was continual yesterday, the statement said. On both sides of the Montello an entente attack on a large scale succeeded in reaching the left bank at certain points. Bitter fighting is in progress.

ATE FIVE TOADSTOOLS

Little Frances Wilson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson, ate five toadstools yesterday and for a time it was feared would suffer serious harm from the poisonous stuff, but fortunately such was not the case and she is shipper and alright this morning.

GLEANING FROM SOLDIER'S LETTERS

Pvt. James Flood, of Co. C. 9th Inf. writes to his mother from France to tell her that he is well and enjoying soldier life immensely. He says he has assisted in a number of drives and seen lots of Germans and finds driving them lots of fun. He says as it will soon be hunting season, he will think he is chasing rabbits while making Fritz and Heinie beat it through the brush. He says he is going to get the Kaiser if it's in the wood.

Pvt. Wilber Ogden, son of Wesley Ogden, of Mt. Joy, is in Base Hospital 47, he having been a victim of gas. Th letter, dated Oct. 3d, was written by a Red Cross nurse. He says he is receiving splendid care and getting along finely. He was in the regiment to go over the top first in the battle in which he was gassed and said they drove the Germans seven miles in three days, he falling on the third day. He thinks he will be able to write himself in a few days.

D. C. Young, of McBride street, recently received the following letter concerning his son Private James Young, who is with the old Tenth P. N. G. P. regiment "over there":

Sept. 30, 1918.

Mr. D. C. Young, Clearfield, Pa.

Dear Sir:— I wish to drop you just a line to say that I have had the pleasure of ministering communion to your son, James, and that at his request we have had prayer together.

He is in spirits that speak of duty done and hope for the best. He is a splendid christian fellow and whatever comes of him in body you may rest assured that he is right in spirit.

CHAPLAIN L. B. BRIGGS.

Base Hospital No. 2, A. E. F.

Private Henry Clifton Merrill in a letter to relatives at New Millport, gives an interesting history of the life of a raw recruit breaking into Uncle Sam's army. Young Merrill was working for Arch Moyer up at Faunce April 23d 1917, when he decided to do his bit for his country and he tells of his journey to DuBois, where he enlisted, his first week at Fort Slocum, N. Y., the first time he was away from home and the longest week of his life. He then detailed his trip to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and his experience in a company of regular soldiers. Then of his trip home to see his sick mother and back again to Texas and thence through the Texas oil fields. He tells of his first experience on the rifle range after hiking thirty-two miles to get a chance to shoot, and winds up with the story of a further journey to Camp Funston, Kansas, where he is installed as company clerk and with his company anxiously awaits the call to duty "across the pond".

William E. Schonwalder in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Schonwalder, of near Hyde City, from the battle front in France, gives an interesting description of things on the western front. He says they are winning great victories and if they keep up their present pace will soon have the Germans driven off the map. He wrote his letter in a dugout formerly used by German officers. It was thirty feet under ground and was bomb and shell proof. They had it fitted out with beds and stoves and even had cows and chickens in an adjoining cave. As he was writing a large number of prisoners just taken, mostly old men, were marched by. He says they captured a boy about 15 years of age and putting a note in his pocket which read: "We came over here to fight men, not boys," told the lad to go back home to his mother and he departed, promising to do so.

A. E. F., France, Oct. 2, 1918.

Dear Father and All:— Just a few lines to let you know I am well and to announce that I have been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross by President Wilson, following General Pershing's recommendation.

Will try to tell you what I got it for, but I never thought at the time that it amounted to much. It happened while our regiment was in Fismes, near the Vesle river. We had quite a battle with the Germans taking the town. A call was made for volunteers to try to take some wounded men across the street and on over the river. Well, three other fellows and I started with a wounded fellow on a door and just as we went around the corner of a house, near the bridge, a German sniper up the street shot the fellow on my right through the hip.

LUDENDORF OUT, HE DISAGREED WITH MAX

Controversy With Chancellor Over Acceptance Of Wilson Terms Cause Assigned

VON SECKT LIKELY SUCCESSOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The resignation of General Ludendorff as German military chief was forced after he had disagreed with Prince Max over acceptance of President Wilson's peace terms, according to news reports from the Hague received by the State Department today.

ZURICH, Oct. 28.—German newspapers predict that General von Seckt, Chief of Staff to General Mackensen during the latter's Roumanian drive, may succeed General Ludendorff as head of the German army.

Copenhagen, Oct. 28.—General Ludendorff, First Quartermaster General of the German army and Field Marshal Hindenburg's "right-hand man" has resigned.

London, Oct. 2.—British admiralty wireless—The effect of General Ludendorff's resignation on the German people who are already suffering from recurring shocks of a terrible crisis can scarcely be over estimated.

By United Press

Berne, Oct. 28.—Rioting scenes accompanied by fist fighting over the Polish question occurred in the Reichstag, according to advices received here today. Foreign Secretary Solf told the Polish members that President Wilson's program did not mean that Danzig would be ceded to them. Order was restored with the help of the police.

PHILIP ALLEN ROWLES IS KILLED IN ACTION

Another Clearfield boy has been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice for his country on the gory battle fields of France.

Word was received here today by Mrs. John Rowles, of Cemetery Road, that her son Philip Allen Rowles had been killed in action over in France. The deceased was sent to Camp Lee from Clearfield in September 1, 1917. He was a fine young man and Mrs. Rowles has the sympathy of the community in her bereavement.

Mrs. Rowles makes her home with her daughter Mrs. Joseph Swatsworth. John Rowles, father of the deceased is employed by the Harbison-Walker Company, near Blue Ball.

Well we saw there was no use trying to cross the bridge while that sniper was there. We got our two wounded back around the house, and there lay a message carrier shot thru the heart as he attempted to take a message across that bridge five minutes before. A sergeant or my company and myself looked for the message but couldn't find it. I knew the captain who sent it and so went over to where he and some other officers were in a dugout at Battalion headquarters.

I reported about the messenger being shot and volunteered to attempt to take a duplicate message to the major on the other side of the town. Well, I started, went about one hundred yards up the river from where the bridge was. At this point there had been an old foot bridge but all that was left was a part of the wooden railing. I crossed it hand over hand and all the while the Germans were shelling thunder out of the town. Nearly got hit several times by bursting shrapnel, but good luck was with me and I got to where the major was located and delivered the message. He then sent two runners with it back to the colonel.

Well to make a long story short I got some "corn Willie" three or four cans, and some hard tack and started back. I got back the same way as O. K. That and some other little things I did got me the cross.

Will tell you the whole story of my experiences at the front when I got home, which I think will be before long.

AUSTRIA ACCEPTS PRESIDENT'S TERMS

(By United Press)
PARIS, Oct. 28.—Austria replying to President Wilson, accepts all of his conditions, it was learned officially from Berne today.

Austria accepts Wilson's terms regarding the Czechoslovaks and the Jugo-Slavs. (The President said that Austria must negotiate directly with the Czechoslovaks and the Jugo-Slavs who desire to establish independent nations.)

Austria declared her readiness to enter negotiations immediately regardless of the result of other negotiations and asks Wilson to take measures toward an armistice and peace. One leading newspaper says "The Austrian note is a complete capitulation." Germany in turn is facing the necessity of accepting conditions of an armistice which will render a renewal of hostilities impossible, binding her to immediate negotiations for a Wilsonian peace.

(By United Press)

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A revolution is feared in Vienna according to advices received here today. The Arch Dukes have found refuge in the castle at Gollito and Emperor Karl, it is said, would leave for Debreczin.

(By United Press)

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 28.—Emperor Karl has asked for the resignation of the Hungarian Premier Wekerle according to Budapest dispatches received here today. Budapest dispatches to the Zeitung said that Count Karolyi, now head of the national council, will request the Emperor to appear before the Hungarian Diet and proclaim Hungary's independence. Peace demonstrations in the Hungarian parliament house Saturday were settled by the police, it was stated.

WILSON ATTEMPTS TO EXPLAIN PEACE TERM CONCERNING TRADE CONDITIONS

By L. C. MARTIN

(United Press Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Denounced as a "lamentable attempt to bend to partisan service the momentous issues of this solemn hour" President Wilson today explained that Article Three of the peace terms does not mean a policy of free trade. "Responding to a letter of inquiry from Senator Simmons who asked that interpretation might be placed on the peace article in question 'removal of all economic barriers and an equality of trade conditions among nations, etc.'" The President said he meant merely that there should be no discrimination against some nations that do not apply to others.

POSSIBLE HOMICIDE NEAR COALPORT

The remains of John Starrie, an Austrian miner, aged 29 years, was found lying on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks about a mile above Coalport, in the direction of Heverly, Pa., at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. Starrie had been run over by a train and horribly mangled and cut up. His head, one arm and one foot was severed from the body.

Starrie with two fellow foreigners were on their way home from Coalport and at 11 o'clock Saturday night sounds denoting an altercation between the men were heard near where the dead man's body was found.

District Attorney Arnold and Sheriff Gorman went to Coalport yesterday to investigate the matter and as a result of what they learned the companion were arrested and brought to jail.

The state-wide ban on the sale of liquor did not appear to bother this party as they were found to have had at least two and a half quarts of whiskey with them when arrested. The men are being held on suspicion, as there is a possibility that Starrie had been knocked out in a battle and then been placed on the track for the train to run over to destroy evidences of the crime.

CHAIRMAN HAYES ANSWERS THE PRESIDENT

Wilson Ungrateful For Generous Support Of Republicans While Forgetting Own Party

PROUD OF PRO-WAR STAND

New York, Oct. 27.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, issued an address today to the Republicans of the country calling upon them to take up what he termed the challenge of the President of the United States in "questioning the motives and fidelity" of the Republican members of Congress in his appeal to the people of the country to return a Democratic Congress at the November election.

Chairman Hays has been in conference with a number of prominent Republicans since last Friday when the President's appeal was issued and it is said obtained their views before putting out his reply which was issued today at the headquarters of the Republican National committee, 452 Fifth avenue. This is Chairman Hays address:

"President Wilson has questioned the motives and fidelity of your representatives in Congress. He thereby impugned their loyalty denied their patriotism. His challenge is to you who elected those representatives. You owe it to the honor of your great party, and your own self-respect to meet the challenge squarely, not only as Republicans but as Americans, I, as your chairman, call upon you to do it.

"Mr. Wilson accuses the Republicans no credit whatever for having supported the 'war measures' proposed by the administration although they have done so with greater unanimity than the members of his own party. Despite that fact, he accuses them of having tried to usurp proper functions. That charge, Mr. Taft declares in carefully measured words, is not true. At no tin and in no way have they tried to take control of the war out of his hand. The President knows that. You know it.

A Mendacious Accusation

"A more ungracious, more unjust, more wanton, more mendacious accusation was never made by the most reckless stump orator, much less by a President of the United States for partisan purposes. It is an insult, not only to every loyal Republican in Congress, but to every loyal Republican in the land. It fully merits the resentment which rightfully and surely will find expression at the polls.

"Mr. Wilson grudgingly admits that the Republicans have been 'pro-war.' Then why does he demand their defeat? Because they are still pro-war? Hardly that. No. It is because they are for peace, though, not without victory; because they do not believe lasting peace can be obtained through negotiation; because they consider that 'U. S. stands for Unconditional Surrender as well as for the United States and Uncle Sam.' The Democratic Congress does not. Mr. Wilson does not. There is the issue clear as the noonday sun. The country will decide.

Wilson Wants Rubber Stamps

"Mr. Wilson wants only rubber stamps, his rubber stamps, in Congress. He says so. No one knows it better than Democratic congressmen. He calls for the defeat of pro-war Republicans and the election of anti-war Democrats. He, as the executive, is no longer satisfied to be one branch of the government, as provided by the constitution. Republican Congressmen must be defeated and Democratic Congressmen must be elected, as they would yield in everything. That is, evidently his idea—the idea of an autocrat calling his life the servant but bidding for the mastery of this great free people.

"Republicans in Congress have seemed to him good enough when they assented, as they did assent with highest patriotism and sometimes against their best judgment to his proposals. Republican at home have seemed to him good enough to send fully a million of their sons into battle to furnish at least half of the army and far more than half of the money for the winning of the war, but they are not considered good enough to have a

When the war ends in democracy's triumph, new obligations will fall upon us. We shall be called upon to send not less food, but more.

The allies will by no means produce a new harvest overnight. Eighty millions of men can not be taken out of production for four years without lasting losses of yield. It will be years before their fields recuperate, farms are restored, and herds are restocked.

But another demand even more insistent will come to us—the cry of the hungry victims of Germany and the war. Every country in Europe has suffered shortage of food, lessened yield, weakened production, most of all the great tracts overrun and pillaged by Germany, tortured and sacked by Germany's partners, wrecked by the Russian madness.

Their woes are increasing; they are facing now a terrible winter. Many will starve. As yet we can not help them except where the Belgian Relief Commission extends its succor. We can not prevent starvation behind the war barrier or beyond the limits of shopping, whose every cubic foot and every second's time is needed in the effort for victory.

After the war the needs of 180,000,000 hungry people will press on America. We could not choose but help them. As we believe in the kindred of all humanity, America will save food to rescue and restore them.

U. S.—UNITED STATES AND ANOTHER MEANING

Chairman Dent of the Committee of Military Affairs, a Democrat, fought the army bill.

Chairman Kitchen of the Ways and Means Committee, a Democrat, fought the army bill.

Speaker Champ Clark, a Democrat, fought the bill.

Republican congressmen came to the rescue of the nation and the President and put the bill through and the only reason President Wilson asks for the return of the Democratic bickering congress is because the Republicans are of another political faith than his own. The President acknowledges that the Republicans are pro-war, in fact gives them credit for it.

Elect Republican congressmen. They have been and will stand back of the President in every real war measure. By so doing give U. S. a new meaning to the Hun. The Republicans being pro-war, as the President says, U. S. will then mean "Unconditional Surrender".

CHAIRMAN HAYES ANSWERS PRESIDENT

voice in the settlement of the war. Why? Are not their sacrifices as great as others? Have not they as much at stake in the future? Mr. Wilson says he has "no thought of surrendering that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism." But he does say that, and suggests further that he alone is paramount in intelligence.

"But Mr. Wilson's real purpose has nothing to do with the conduct of the war. He has had that from the beginning, has it now, and nobody dreams of interfering with his control. He wants just two things. One is full power to settle the war precisely as he and his sole, unelected, unapartial affairs of the nation in the same may determine. The other is full power as the 'unembarrassed' spokesman in affairs at home as he actually demands in his statement, to reconstruct in peace time the great industrial affairs of the nation in the same way in unimpeded conformity with whatever socialist doctrines, whatever unlimited government ownership notions, whatever hazy whims may happen to possess him at that time, but first and above all with absolute commitment to free trade with all

AN ANSWER TO THE DEMOCRATIC INSULT TO REPUBLICAN PATRIOTS

"Politics is adjourned?" Yes it is. What do you think of the following? The Democratic Watchman in its issue of October 18th under the title of "False Pretense Revealed" says:

"The only reason that any Republican Senator or Representative in Congress has voted for any of the war measures is that they hadn't strength enough to defeat them and hadn't courage enough to oppose them as a minority. Moreover if the Republicans had a majority in both branches of Congress, the conscription bill would not have been passed, the revenue bill would have been defeated and every other war measure which has world such splendid results would have been voted down."

This statement is really too ridiculous to be called pernicious. Every thinking man in the United States knows that the Republican party is the real WAR PARTY. The Democratic slogan "He kept us out of war" was proclaimed from the Atlantic to the Pacific from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. The Democratic Patriarch, William Jennings Bryan was heralded all over the country as champion of peace, a cartoon with the dove of peace resting on his head was in all city and country papers. "We are too proud to fight," "We can have peace without victory," were the political watch-words and phrases all thru the campaign, while the Republicans were proclaiming and demanding PREPARATION, insisting on retribution for insults heaped on innocent people and innocent nations. The democratic party was put in power. They elected their president and vice president. They controlled the Congress and their speaker, Champ Clark, left his seat as Presiding Officer and came to the floor of the House to speak and did speak against the CONSCRIPTION LAW. This is only done when the majority desires to force a measure through Congress and had not the Republicans stood solidly with the President the Conscription Law would have been defeated. The floor leader of the House when our ships were sunk declared "Millions for U Boat destroyers but not one cent for BATTLE SHIPS, and yet the Watchman has the nerve to say the Conscription bill would not have been passed and the revenue bills been defeated had the Republicans a majority in both branches of Congress.

Under the same article, the Watchman said:

"Republican speakers and press the world, thus giving to Germany out of hand the fruits of a victory greater than she could win by fighting a hundred years. A Republican Congress will never consent to that. Do you want a Congress that will? Germany does.

Germany Looks to Wilson

"Germany looks to Mr. Wilson to get it for her, as he pledged himself to do in one of the few of his famous articles which is explicable. Germany understands that. See the New York World, spokesman for the administration, of last Saturday and read the testimony of Henry C. Emery, former head of the tariff commission, just returned from seven months in Germany. 'The German people,' he says, 'seemed to realize that President Wilson lay their only salvation. They have turned to him in belief that he is the one great political leader who can be trusted to make a permanent peace which shall permit equal economic development. He is. All others demand that the Germans shall pay the full penalty of their crimes.'

"What worse than nonsense then is the Democratic campaign cry that the election of a Republican Congress, pledged to unconditional surrender and protection of American industries and American workingmen, instead of a Democratic congress ready to assent to a negotiated peace and free trade would bear cheer to Germany. Such claims would be ludicrous if they were not so seriously unpatriotic. They are as unfair, as untrue and as utterly impossible as their claim that our Allies would be cast down by the election of such a Republican Congress in the face of the world-known Republican record, past and present and in the face of the recent acclaim abroad of Republican senators, as reported in the Paris cable to the Democratic New York Times on October 9 in these words:

"The reports of debates in the American Senate share first place with the news of the great patriotic victories on the West front. Senators McCumber, Nelson, and Lodge are as high as the stars of France today as the American generals."

Wilson Only G. O. P. Surrender

"Mr. Wilson is using the Republican name to make it appear that the Republican party have passed true and loyal patriots. Are you going to do it? Answer with

have the assurance—I presume he meant audacity—to ask patriotic didacts for Senators and Representatives for Senators and Representatives in Congress upon the false and fraudulent pretense that such action will promote the prosecution of the war. It can have no other than the opposite result. It will promote the success of the German autocracy in the war, and prolong the struggle indefinitely and cost hundreds of thousands of lives of American citizens. No man who desires to see the war speedily and successfully conducted will vote for a Republican candidate for either branch of Congress. No intelligent man outside the central powers desires a Republican majority in Congress."

Can you think of a more absurd, false, pernicious, piece of political propaganda than that? Listen, you men of sixty-one to sixty-five, you who followed the flag through the battle fields of the south, you who have stood by the principles of Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt; you men are now called upon to desert your principles under the penalty of being called unpatriotic. Listen, you two hundred or more thousand Republican fathers in Pennsylvania who have sons on the firing line of France, who have sons in the casualty lists, you are called unpatriotic and the continuation of your loved ones on the firing lines, if there is a Republican Congress, will be worse than useless for the war will continue indefinitely and hundreds of thousands of lives will be lost. Dosh. Listen Senator Miller, you who have a son languishing in a German prison suffering the tortures of hell and another son and son-in-law in the service, why do you seek the senate of Pennsylvania as a Republican when you must call to your help Republican voters who are unpatriotic if they vote for you, and if they vote for your colleagues on the ticket will prolong the war indefinitely and cost hundreds of thousands of lives.

Yes, Politics is adjourned. Keep up that kind of propaganda which is not only an insult to the great Republican State of Pennsylvania that has done more than any other state in the union in man power and money power in the war, and reflects on the honesty and integrity of the democratic leaders, them, yes, but it will do to the Republican candidates the most serious harm of all, it will your votes. Mr. Wilson forces the Republican party to lie down or fight. I say fight. Answer with your votes.

"Mr. Wilson is for unconditional surrender. Yes, for the unconditional surrender to himself of the Republican party, of the country, of the Allies. All to him as the sole arbiter and master of the destinies of the world. Do you stand for that? Answer with your vote."

"The war is a Democratic asset," shouted Vice President Marshall. And they have made every effort to make it so, despite the earnest Republican insistence that we have no contact as to anything that touches the war except that contest as to who best can serve, who most can give. Republicans have insisted that with the great war load to haul both political horses be harnessed, each striving to see which can pull the harder. Mr. Wilson's appeal is simply the supreme effort of the Democratic high command to capitalize for partisan political purposes the glorious spirit of patriotism that inspires this country. He now openly speaks as his party has been secretly for months. And he charges nothing—neither the facts nor the Democratic political methods, nor the certainty of Republican success.

"This is a call to all loyal Republicans, proud in their patriotism, to stand by their country and their candidates, and to let the world know that America spurns autocracy no less at home than abroad, and will uphold her Allies in whatever reparation they may exact for the frightful outrages inflicted upon them by the accursed Huns. We are fighting in France to make certain forever that men may have the right to govern themselves. Here, where we have that right, we shall exercise it now and always. America was created for that very privilege. America will not be denied it now. America will answer with her vote."

PROMINENT SMOKY CITY MAN CLAIMS CLEARFIELD GIRL

Miss Julia Matilda Bell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Singleton Bell of Front street, Clearfield, became the bride of Robert J. Alderdice, superintendent of police of Pittsburgh, at a pretty home wedding Saturday evening.

Although original plans had to be curtailed because of influenza restrictions, the event was the most elaborate society affair in Clearfield for years being attended by many out-of-town guests of prominence. The wedding was to have been a church event, but because of quarantine regulations was converted into a home ceremony, and in order to comply with regulations of the board of health it was necessary to recall a large number of invitations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite gown of white satin, trimmed with old point lace and pearls. Her veil of real lace, arranged in cap effect, was caught to the coiffure with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses. Miss Gertrude Bell, as her sister's maid of honor, appeared in a fetching frock of turquoise blue satin and gold and the bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Badwin of Williamsport and Miss Natalie York, of New York, made a charming picture in effective gowns of the same satin in turquoise blue and gold. They carried bouquets of Killarney roses.

John Alderdice of Dormont, acted as his brother's best man. Completing the bridal party were the ushers, Corporal Cortez Bell of Clearfield, a brother of the bride; George Weaver, also of Clearfield and Robert A. Goshorn and Harry H. Kramer, both of Pittsburgh. The ceremony was followed by a large reception in the home. Throughout the house vases of white maples, Killarney roses and ferns were arranged in an artistic manner.

Among the out-of-town guests were Hon. and Mrs. Charles H. Rowland, of Philadelphia; Hon. and Mrs. Albert W. Johnson, of Lewisburg; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Nevin, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Schwem, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gleason and Mr. and Mrs. C.S. Russell of Curwensville.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Alderdice left on a honeymoon trip to Atlantic City. They will be at home at 522 South Braddock avenue, Pittsburgh, after their return early in November.

CAPTAIN CHESTER KERR VISITING CLEARFIELD

Captain Chester Kerr and family are guests at the home of Colonel Fred B. Kerr on Pine street at present. Captain Kerr was employed at Boardman mining operation of the James Kerr estate when the National Guard was sent to the Mexican border by President Wilson and accompanied a New York regiment as a private. He saw six months service there and later entered the officers training camp at Plattsburgh where he succeeded in winning a Captain's commission. He was then attached to the officer's training corps at Camp Upton and for the past ten months has been assisting in turning out "lightning trained Yankees" for service against Kaiser Bill's fleeing huns.

Some three weeks ago Captain Kerr was operated upon for appendicitis and was recently given an extended furlough for the purpose of recuperating his strength. He decided to do his recuperating among old home friends and scenes, hence his visit to Clearfield, where he is rapidly recovering and will soon be back to duty again.

Captain Kerr is a fine appearing soldier and is naturally very proud of the work the boys from Upton are doing in the big whirl across the pond.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

Minutes of Special Meeting of Curwensville Borough Council called at the office of R. D. Swoope, Esq., Curwensville, Pa., Friday, Oct. 25, 1918, for the purpose of considering and acting upon matters pertaining to the epidemic of Spanish influenza.

Meeting was convened at 8 o'clock, with President of Council John P. Irvin in the chair and Councilmen Z. A. Strickland, Percy Holten, C. S. Russell, M. A. Caldwell, J. M. McKinley, Chief Burgess Frank H. Traister, Chief of Police Guy B. Clark, Solicitor R. D. Swoope, Esq., a quorum of Curwensville Board of Health and a large number of representative citizens of Curwensville present.

Mr. Russell moved that the Council authorize Chief of Police Clark to have general charge of the houses quarantined in the borough and to use his police powers to have said quarantine strictly observed. That during the prevalence of the present epidemic he shall give all his time to this work; that he also shall be authorized to disperse all crowds of people, either on the streets or in any place of business, or otherwise in the said borough, and if necessary the Chief Burgess shall appoint other persons as assistants to the Chief Police in the performance of these duties, until such time as the present epidemic shall cease. Seconded by Mr. Caldwell. Carried.

Mr. McKinley moved that the Borough Post Office shall be closed at 6 o'clock P. M. each day and not opened until the following day at the usual time for opening same. Seconded by Mr. Strickland. Carried.

J. M. McKinley moved that the Curwensville Borough Council recommend to the Board of Health that a strict quarantine of the borough be established during the prevalence of the present epidemic of Spanish influenza, and that no person be permitted to travel from or into the borough without a physician's certificate; to have proper notices printed and all carriers of passengers notified. Motion seconded by Mr. Caldwell. Carried.

Mr. Russell moved that an appropriation of $160.00 be granted to the Board of Health. Seconded by Mr. Holten. Carried.

On motion adjourned.

President of Council J. P. Irvin wishes us to request all parents to restrain their children from indulging in any hallowe'en demonstrations whatever, and all those who indulge in disturbing the peace, either on or before or after hallowe'en will be arrested and fined.

Special meeting of Curwensville Borough Council, called by President John P. Irvin, convened at the office of John A. Dale, October 2, 1918, at 11 o'clock, a. m., to consider and act upon matters appertaining to the epidemic of Spanish influenza, with President Irvin in the chair, Councilmen C. S. Russell, Z. A. Strickland, Percy Holten and J. M. McKinley and Chief Burgess Frank H. Traister present.

The following resolutions were presented:

FIRST. That beginning with Monday October 28, 1918, and until further notice, all business places, barber shops, and all other places where people can and do congregate in crowds, shall be absolutely closed at 6 o'clock p. m., and not reopened until the regular opening hour the next day, except that drug stores may remain open for the dispensation of medical necessities only, and that restaurants may remain open until 7 o'clock p. m., for the sole purpose of serving meals.

SECOND. That becoming effective on Monday evening, October 28, 1918, no minor under the age of eighteen years, unless accompanied by his or her parent or guardian, or unless provided with a signed statement from his or her parent or guardian, authorizing a necessary errand, shall be permitted upon the streets or alleys of the Borough of Curwensville from 6 o'clock p. m. until 5 o'clock a. m., of each day, and that public notice of said curfew shall be given each evening at 7:45 o'clock p. m. by the ringing of the State street school house bell.

Heal Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. A little Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases. Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress.

ing of the State street school house bell.

PENALTY. Any person violating either of these regulations, shall for the first offence be fined, by the Chief Burgess or a Justice of the Peace, upon conviction thereof, the sum of $3.00, and for the second or any subsequent violation, the sum of $5.00 and costs upon conviction as aforesaid.

Upon motion duly seconded said two Resolutions were unanimously approved.

On motion adjourned.

JOHN A. DALE, Sec.

OBITUARY

JAMES R. OGDEN DIES

James R. Ogden died at his home in the Third Ward at an early hour this morning as the result of a third stroke of paralysis, following an illness of five years duration.

The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Scout Ogden, and was born at the old Ogden homestead on South Second street May 12, 1849. He was a sober, industrious man and a good citizen at all times.

He is survived by his widow and four sons, viz: Belman, Halford, Ralph and David. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: M. Rush, Talbert D., William B., and Harry G. Ogden, Mrs. James Robinson, all of Clearfield, and Mrs. Curtis Wrigley, of Chester county.

The funeral will be held from his late home near Fulton street Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock, Rev. Nealon, of the Seventh Day Adventist church of DuBois, officiating. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

CLAIR A. MITCHELL

Clair A. Mitchell, a former Bradford township resident, died yesterday at his home 1216 Seventh street, south, Great Falls, Montana, of pneumonia following an attack of influenza. The deceased was 36 years of age and the son of the late Daniel F. and Hattie A. Mitchell, of near Woodland. He was a brother of Ashley, Lelia and Miss Jessie Mitchell, of Clearfield.

He is survived by a widow, son and daughter, all of whom are down with influenza.

In a Scottish town recently the relatives of four men who had distinguished themselves at the front were called at a public presentation to receive the medals awarded to these brave men. During the ceremony it was stated that the four men had been friends, had all enlisted on the same day, had all won their medals on the same day, had all, though in different ways, and had all been killed on the same day.

The most costly map in the world is a map of France which was presented to the Republic by the Czar of Russia when the Franco-Russian alliance was consummated. The groundwork of the map is polished jasper, and the chief towns are represented by precious stones and their names inscribed in gold. The rivers are strips of polished platinum, and the eighty-seven departments are set out in a wonderful scheme of blazing gems.

The bamboo has been known to grow two feet in twenty-four hours.

To regain your health and strength again you must take a tonic and for this purpose the Medical Profession is prescribing Iron, Nux, Yonca, Cod-Liver, Capstur and Zine Phosphate in some form. Many preparations containing iron are very constipating, but this is very constipating but this is not the case with the addition of Alon in Chas. Blood and Nerve Tablets, which contain all of the above tonic remedies.

In these Tablets you have all that is good in tonic medicines without any harmful effects. They are safe and sure, build up the system and at the same time it would be hard to over-estimate their value.

Weigh your child before taking this and see what you gain in weight and strength. Strong, if druggists sell it. Pack and Nerve Tablets at sixty cents a box. Sent by mail.

October, 1918.

To Huntingdon & Clearfield Telephone Co. Subscribers:

The labor and material situation was most critical before the "Flu" came. The epidemic has brought it to the point where, without your co-operation, we are not able to give you the service you received in normal times. Won't you kindly help us to help you by:

- 1 - Avoiding making any but NECESSARY calls, and be as brief as possible.
- 2 - Stop making special appeals to the Operators for special service, such as, "TIME OF DAY", "FLU CONDITIONS", "WAR NEWS" ETC.

- 3 - Show your patient consideration to those Operators who, despite their increased tasks, are giving their best endeavors.

- 4 - Thanking you for the patriotic response we feel sure you will give to this personal appeal, we are;

Yours very truly,
